Sexsmith Branch of Canadian Legion Banquet-Dance Held Nov. 11 Unqualified Success

Comrades Enjoy Wonderful Spread Set by W. G. Smith. Over One Hundred of the Legionnaires and their friends sat down to the banquet and dance at the Sexsmith branch of the Canadian Legion on Friday night, November 11.

The Canadian Legion banquet hall at Sexsmith was the scene of an unqualified success on Friday night. Over one hundred of the Legionnaires and their friends sat down to the banquet and dance at the Sexsmith branch of the Canadian Legion on Friday night, November 11.

After the last Post, Commodore T. J. W. Smith, who had been with the 2nd Brigade, read the following message from the front line on November 11, 1918:

Hostilities will cease at 11:00 hours on November 11. Troops will stand fast on the line until that hour, which will be reported to Divisional Headquarters. After that hour, no further fighting will be permitted.

The next in order was a toast to the ladies by Commodore J. P. McLean, who was given to the singing of the national anthem. After complimenting the fair sex, Joe stated that after looking at some of the comrades who had been so fortunate in attaining some of the prizes, he thought that they (the ladies) might have done much better if they had waited a little longer to do so.

Mrs. Harry Conroy replied, thanking Mr. McLean for the nice things he had said about them. The next toast was given to the ladies by Commodore J. P. McLean, who was given to the singing of the national anthem.

"SALUTE TO BEAUTY" IS DISPLAY OF CHRYSLER CORPORATION OF CANADA LIMITED AT FORTHCOMING NATIONAL MOTOR SHOW

"Salute to Beauty" is a ballet-performance of youth, beauty, luxury, elegance and grace, interpreting in music, dance and song the fine car features to be found in the new Chrysler, DeSoto, Dodge and Plymouth cars for 1938. It is one of the outstanding features of the 1938 National Motor Show and is presented by the Chrysler Corporation of Canada Limited.

The cast for the ballet-performance consists of over thirty people, including sixteen dancers, a twelve-piece orchestra and a male quartet.

The setting for "Salute to Beauty" is a massive stage, featuring a revolving floor and a built-in orchestra pit. Angle on angle, every one of the modernistic stage builds up from a wide base to massive pylons towering right up to the roof of the Automobile Building. Modernistic lighting throws the streamlined design of the stage into brilliant prominence. White, gold and light are the predominant features of the colour scheme.

The well-marked trend of the public to luxury-buying is the chief reason for this new type of display. The Chrysler Corporation of Canada Limited feels that automobile purchasers should be shown the luxury features of Chrysler, DeSoto, Dodge and Plymouth cars in a setting of beauty, luxury, and elegance to match that of these new automobiles.

The "Salute to Beauty" performance will be given four times each day during the Motor Show at the following hours: 2:30 P.M., 4:15 P.M., 6:00 P.M., and 9:00 P.M.
